ChatGPT is talking buyers out of buying from you.

Buyer: your brand or your competitor ?

OUT OF DATE

AI ANSWER

I'd go with your competitor. Your brand ~~charges for returns~~ and reviews mention slow delivery.

Run one check a day, Monday to Friday.

When a buyer compares you with a competitor, AI often quotes old pages about you. Some of what it says is no longer true.

Wednesday, look at the price in the first answer.

It usually comes from the first merchant listed.
That may not be you or the cheapest.
